FINAL REPORT

OF THE

Masonic Board of Relief.

The recent great conflagration which laid waste and destroyed the fairest portion of the city of Chicago, included in its ravages the total destruction of a number of beautiful Halls, together with the Charters, Records, Jewels, Paraphrenalia and other property, of eighteen Lodges, two Chapters, one Council, two Commanderies, and the four co-ordinate bodies of the A. & A. Scottish Rite, viz :

Thus, in a few hours, the craft of our city was reduced from a condition of comparative affluence and comfort, to that of poverty and distress.

TEMPORARY ORGANIZATION OF RELIEF COMMITTEE.

On Thursday, October 12th, a few brethren convened at Masonic Temple, in the West Division, and organized as a committee, for the purpose of relieving those of the fraternity who were then suffering by reason of the fire.

Such was the tumult and confusion consequent upon the appalling disaster, that it was a matter of great difficulty for friends to find, or communicate with each other. However, this little band of Brothers commenced the good work with, at this time, but scanty means to supply the wants of the needy.

Upon application to the Louisville Relief Committee, who had already established a depot of supplies in the city, and to the Mayor and others, in charge of provisions and clothing sent hither by a generous world, they promptly responded, by placing at the disposal of our committee sufficient to meet the immediate demands upon them.

But at this moment, the noble craft, everywhere, was at labor in behalf of their distressed brethren, and but a few hours elapsed before the "mystic current" was flashed through the wires, from East, West, South, yea, and from the "North"; conveying the glad tidings that succor was at hand.

The unexampled outpouring of Masonic charity which ensued, was indeed commensurate with the awful necessity. Liberal donations were received from all quarters, by telegram, by letter, and by individual brethren; each accompanied with the kindest expressions of fraternal sympathy and brotherly love.

On the 14th of October, the Relief Committee was relieved by the organization of the

with the following officers :

M. W. DeWitt C. Cregier, 271, Grand Master, President,
R. W. H. F. Holcomb, 141, D. D. G. M., Vice President,
R. E. Wiley M. Egan, 211, Grand Commander K. T., Treasurer,
W. Geo. K. Hazlitt, 211, Recording Secretary,
Ed. J. Hill, 211, Corresponding Secretary.

AND MEMBERS.

W. Geo. R. McClellan, 141,	W. Walter A. Stevens, 393,
W. D. J. Avery, 411,	W. G. C. Smith, 209,
W. T. T. Gurney, 211,	W. C. J. Franks, 410.
W. C. H. Brenan, 411.

The Master and Wardens of each Lodge in the city, were appointed a special committee, to ascertain the whereabouts, the condition and the wants of their respective members, and report the same to the proper officers of the Board, that the needy might be cared for. The officers and members of the Board were also divided into committees, to whom were assigned various duties incident to the occasion. This occupied nearly their whole time. All the Brethren constituting the Board were more or less sufferers by the fire, and a number of them found it necessary to devote some time to their own affairs, in order to provide for themselves and families. Thus, while the work of relief was increasing, the help and facilities to meet the demand became inadequate; consequently, on the 24th of October, changes and additions were made in both officers and members, and continued until the final adjournment, as follows:

M. W. DeWitt C. Cregier, 271, President,
R. W. H. F. Holcomb, 141, Vice President,
R. E. W. M. Egan, 211, Treasurer,
Harry Duvall, 271, Recording Secretary,
Ed. J. Hill, 211, Corresponding Secretary,
James Morison, 141, Superintendent.

MEMBERS.

W. T. T. Gurney, 211,	W. Geo. R. McClellan, 141,
W. D. J. Avery, 411,	W. C. J. Franks, 410,
W. John Feldkamp, 557,	W. J. H. Miles, 211,
W. E. Powell, M. D., 33,	W. John Sutton, 310,
W. D. H. Kilmore, 209,	W. J. E. Church, 160,
W. A. M. Thomson, 311,	I. W. Congdon, 526,
E. Ronayne, 639.

From this date the rooms were kept open daily from 9 A. M. to 5 P. M., (Sundays excepted). For some time the meetings of the Board were held twice each week; subsequently but once; at which time matters connected with applications, and other business, was transacted.

The work in hand required careful supervision, involving much time and labor. It was therefore deemed proper that the Secretary and Superintendent should give their undivided attention to the business of the Board, granting them such additional assistance as might be required.

The Superintendent received all goods donated, and purchased such as were required; also, attending to the outside business generally.

The Recording Secretary took charge of, and issued the supplies, received all applications, and recorded the entire transactions pertaining to the Board. These two officers were each paid one hundred dollars per month. Assistants, to visit and investigate the condition and necessities of applicants, and perform other services, were paid from two to three dollars per day.

The President, Recording Secretary and Superintendant, were constituted an Executive Committee, who held daily meetings, to consider applications.

In nearly all letters accompanying the donations, the instructions as to the disposition thereof were explicit, and it may be worthy of note that these letters, coming, as they did, from so many different parts of the Continent, should contain language almost identical, viz: that the donations were intended "for the relief of worthy Master Masons, their widows and orphans, who were sufferers by the fire of the eighth and ninth of October." Under these instructions, those who became the agents of the donors, resolved that the funds should be disbursed fairly, justly, and to those designated by the givers; and that all applicants therefor be properly vouched for, not only as being worthy, but as having suffered by the fire.

That a few who were neither worthy nor qualified, received a small amount of aid, is true; but these exceptions were not due to carelessness on the part of those in charge, but from over-zealousness manifested by those who recommended the applicant.

Most of the applications were attended to immediately by the Executive Committee. In some cases, however, where the request for aid seemed excessive, or where there was doubt as to, (so to speak,) the eligibility of the applicant, the matter was referred to the full Board, for their action.

A number of applications were received from brethren for loans of a considerable amount of money, for the purpose of establishing, and re-establishing, themselves in various branches of business, such as boarding houses, etc. The aggregate amount of money asked for these purposes would reach about Two Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars. Those charged with the disbursement of the fund, believed it was intended to relieve the immediate necessities of Masons and their families, caused by the fire; they therefore felt obliged, in view of the general instructions of the donors, and for other obvious reasons, to decline granting such applications.

In most cases, where artizans required tools in order to ply their vocations, and thereby provide for themselves and families, they were freely supplied. Among a large number of such applications, three only were refused, viz :—one required tools to the amount of four hundred dollars ; another asked for tools and machinery which would cost one thousand seven hundred and fifty dollars. The other application was from a brother engaged in the practice of law, who requested a law library and office furniture, estimated to cost a trifle over four hundred and fifty dollars. Other cases might be cited, to show that refusals to grant the aid asked for, were sometimes absolutely necessary, to keep within the bounds of propriety, not to say justice ; but those referred to are deemed sufficient.

As a matter of prudence, it was deemed best to procure whatever was required by applicants, instead of giving money, because we were then enabled to purchase in quantities, and avail ourselves of the liberal advantages offered by our merchants and dealers generally. In some cases contracts were made for supplies ; this proved to the benefit of all concerned.

Where brethren desired to go to other cities to seek employment, transportation was immediately secured, and a small amount of cash in addition was given for other expenses.

During several months succeeding the fire, many brethren reached Chicago from abroad, and upon their arrival found themselves in straightened circumstances ; in some cases with families dependent upon them. Our Lodges were utterly unable to respond to their call for aid, and as these brethren were in no way sufferers by the fire, the board felt a delicacy in using any of the fund in hand, for their relief. Nevertheless, the needy ones were Masons, and under ordinary circumstances they would have found succor. But this, at the time, was quite out of the question. It was therefore resolved by the Board, that all cases of this kind be referred to the Grand Master, who was empowered to render such assistance from the fund as he might deem proper. Pursuant to these instructions, a number of brethren from various jurisdictions have been assisted, and we believe, with few exceptions, they were in every way worthy, as the records will show. We mention one case of interest, viz : a brother—a clergyman—on his way to California with an invalid daughter, while en route to this city, was robbed of his money. Arriving in Chicago, he found himself destitute, and making himself known, requested two second class tickets to San Francisco, which were furnished him by order of the Grand Master. Through the fraternal kindness of Bro. E. St. John, of the C. R. I. & P. R. R. Co., the brother was furnished with letters which secured to him and his daughter the privileges of first class fare over all the roads to their destination. The brother reached his home in safety, and soon after sent a letter expressing his grateful acknowledgments for the favor and inclosing a check for the full amount advanced to him.

The courtesy of the Railroad Companies in this case, as well as many others of similar character, render the Board sensible of their obligations to the officers of the several Railroad Companies represented in our city, for the liberal concessions made in matters of transportation, and for which we desire to express our grateful acknowledgments.

For a time, subsequent to the fire, many brethren came to Chicago expecting to realize large wages for their services, and when they found they could secure but a trifle more than they had been accustomed to receive, sorely disappointed and anxious to return to their homes, they found themselves without the necessary means; they accordingly applied to the Board for assistance. At this time we could procure work for them at fair wages, and those who refused to avail themselves of a chance to work were allowed to depart in peace, as we did not feel at liberty, under the circumstances, to render them pecuniary aid.

Another class of applicants were Mason's relatives, mostly females, and not sufferers by the fire; but being in want, they were assisted, and the aid rendered is charged under the head of "charity." Indeed, all worthy applicants in need were freely assisted, and as a rule the aid rendered was gratefully received. Many families were provided for from the fund, during the entire winter and spring, or until they were enabled to help themselves.

But very little imposition has been practiced upon the Board, as those attempting it were promptly thwarted in their designs and called to an account for their conduct.

On the 1st of February a special report was issued, showing the transactions of the Board up to that date, and the same was sent to every Lodge who had contributed. It was also published in the daily press and Masonic Journals. This report stated that it was believed the amount of money already received would be sufficient to meet all legitimate demands. However, a considerable amount was subsequently donated. The special report will be found on page thirty.

The Board continued to hold regular sessions until the 15th of May, at which time it was resolved that no further supplies be distributed, except to widows and children, and brethren who were sick.

Applications were becoming greatly diminished, and soon after it was determined to close all accounts. The duty of caring for those in need was transferred to the several Lodges, and the expense necessary to carrying on the work of the Board was thus obviated. It was further the intention to award to each Lodge a certain amount of the surplus funds in order that they might be able to meet the demands for assistance made upon them.

On St. John's day, (June 24th,) the final meeting of the Board was held, and the President submitted the following REPORT:

To the Officers and Members of the Masonic Board of Relief:

BRETHREN:—We are convened for the purpose of hearing the final report upon matters which have engaged your attention for the past eight months.

The continued call upon the fund sent here to assist our unfortunate brethren, has rendered it difficult to close the several accounts, and now that the report is ready, I need hardly say it has been a task occupying more time than was anticipated. However the minute and systematic manner in which the detail has been arranged, will, it is hoped, repay for the time spent, and prove satisfactory to all concerned.

As President, I shall report what perhaps concerns you most, viz :—the total receipts and expenditures of cash; and the proposed disposition of the surplus, leaving other interesting details to be laid before you by our Secretary. I may add, that the correctness of every transaction, whether it be of cash, supplies, or whatsoever, is shown by proper vouchers and other reliable evidences, which will be published for the perusal of all.

The cash, (exclusive of goods and other supplies,) received to date, from all sources, including premium on gold, is - - - - - $82,206.17
Add premium on $280 gold drafts subsequently rec'd 38.75
Add interest accruing on deposits in Metropolitan National Bank, New York, - - - - - 844.14
Making total cash receipts, - - - - - $83,089.06 and has been donated from the following jurisdictions. See recapitulation of receipts, on page ninety-two.

The entire amount has been deposited with our Treasurer, as shown by his receipts.

Two additional donations, one of fifty dollars from Warren Lodge, Massachusetts, and one of twenty-seven dollars and twenty cents from Fidelity Lodge, Illinois, have come to hand since the close of cash account. These will be returned to the donors without being entered in accounts; for to retain them would change all our calculations, as will be seen presently. Of course, for these and all other amounts returned, receipts will be taken and filed among the papers.

There has been disbursed, thirty thousand six hundred and thirty-one dollars and thirty-seven cents, for the relief of three thousand one hundred and forty-five needy brethren, widows and children; most of which you have heretofore authorized at the different sessions held during our organization; to whom and for what, the Secretary's books will show. See tabular statement of distributions, page one hundred and eleven.

You know with what care and attention we have endeavored to disburse this sacred fund; and it must be a source of great satisfaction to know that our efforts have been successful, for even amid the perplexities attending the first hours of our organization, there has been but very little imposition practiced upon this Board. No worthy brother Mason has applied for assistance and been neglected, no worthy widow or orphan has been denied assistance, nor have those who have been deemed unworthy received assistance, if we knew it.

Many of the Lodges in our State, and a few in other States, have sent us two, three, and even four separate contributions. Doubtless these noble Lodges have been actuated by an exuberance of charity which "suffereth long," etc., for it may be seen by their correspondence that many of them have been rather more generous to us than just to themselves.

Quite a number of the letters accompanying the donations state that they have drained their treasury and left themselves in debt. Indeed, I know of several Lodges who have embarrassed themselves in this particular. This evidence of their brotherly love for us should be, as I know it is, justly appreciated by the Masons of Chicago. To the end that we may practically manifest our appreciation of their kindness, and in order to avoid anything like partiality, I propose to return to all those Lodges which have sent two or more contributions, one half of the amount, with a proper explanation of our motives in so doing. The aggregate amount being two thousand two hundred and five dollars and eighty-nine cents, to lodges as follows:

As you have already expressed yourselves favorably upon the propriety of this proceeding, I have no doubt you will now confirm it.

In addition to the foregoing amount, thirty dollars, donated by Wyoming Chapter, order of Eastern Star, Illinois, will be returned, as we are informed by letter it was money collected for paraphrenalia incident to that society, and could not easily be spared.

Particular attention has invariably been given to the instructions in letters accompanying donations, and when there was any doubt inquiry was made to the proper parties for information. In a number of cases, money was donated from Chapters, for the relief of "Companions;" in others, from Commanderies, for the benefit of "Sir Knights."

Our mission was to aid Master Masons, and as there were two Committees of well known brethren, organized for the special purpose of attending to R. A. Masons and Knights Templar, we have paid over to said Committees all money that was clearly intended for the brethren named, amounting to nine hundred and forty-eight dollars and fifty cents, received from the following bodies :

It is proper to state, that a considerable amount sent by R. A. Chapters was expressly designated for the aid of Master Masons; such therefore was retained.

The Craft of Maryland, through their Grand Master, sent a draft for two thousand three hundred and four dollars and sixty-two cents, and the letter accompanying it instructed that the amount should be distributed "among the sufferers generally." In answer to a letter of inquiry as to whether the word "generally" was intended to include others than Masons, the Grand Master of Maryland replied, that it was so intended. Upon my suggestion that the Chicago Relief and Aid Society was better prepared to reach the sufferers generally, than this Board, the Grand Master of Maryland concurred, and instructed that the amount be handed to that body, which was accordingly done, and the receipt therefor is on file. See contributions from Maryland, on page sixty-five.

Brethren, I now come to a subject upon which much has been said by a few, and upon which I have bestowed considerable time and thought. It is the aid to be rendered our Lodges as such, not only those who were burned out, but also those who escaped that misfortune.

It will be found that the members of some of our Lodges have been assisted to a far greater extent than those of other Lodges. That is, there has been a great nominal disproportion in this particular, if we take their respective memberships as a basis.

I have revolved this matter in my mind, in order to arrive at a just conclusion, and the result reached is, that however much or however little each Lodge has received, it should be regarded as an index of their respective wants; because we assume that our brethren applied for and received what their necessities required. Hence, this became a part of the legitimate disbursement, and should cut no figure in their proportion of the surplus. I am persuaded that that this view is just and proper, and upon due consideration I think you will concur in it. Nevertheless, we shall show just what the members of each Lodge have received of the fund, in supplies, etc.

There is another important fact which has a great bearing in this connection; it is, that many of our Lodges have but a very limited membership, and are not, therefore, as able to withstand their misfortunes as those Lodges that have a much larger number upon their rolls. For instance, we have thirty-one chartered Lodges, ranging in membership from two hundred and ninety-three to eighteen, each being a lodge of itself; the smaller one is subject to nearly the same expenses as those with larger membership, and yet, one has but a few to bear the burdens, while the other has many. I allude to this not as the real basis of our proposal, but simply to show that it has not been lost sight of. Hence, we conclude that the larger the Lodge the smaller the per capita, and the smaller the Lodge the larger the per capita.

During the great fire, eighteen Lodges were burned out, with losses of more or less magnitude, but I know of no way to meet the question upon the basis of loss. Even the Lodges that were not burned out have members who greatly suffered by the fire, consequently they, like their more unfortunate sisters, have nominal or indirect claims to our consideration; of these there are thirteen. Lodges, U. D., we have not considered, for several reasons; the principal one being, that their members in the main are in fact members of other city Lodges and have therefore been duly considered.

To the eighteen Lodges burned out, we have set apart the sum of twenty thousand two hundred and sixty-seven dollars, being an average of eleven hundred and twenty-five dollars and ninety-four cents to each Lodge. Taking the resident membership of each Lodge at the time of the fire, from our Grand Lodge records, (of course non-residents cannot properly be counted in this case,) we have graded the Lodges, and awarded an amount in proportion to their respective membership, and I submit the following as the result.

NOTE.—The Lodges named on the following page received the amounts allotted to them, except South Park Lodge, No. 662, which declined to accept the trust.

To the non-burned out Lodges, under the views heretofore expressed, we have awarded just one-half the per capita to those Lodges having same grade or membership as determined for burned out Lodges, which amounts to Five Thousand Three Hundred and One Dollars, or an average of Four Hundred and Seven Dollars and Seventy-seven cents to each, as follows:

I suggest that these awards be made upon the express condition, that each Lodge receiving the amount, shall amend their By-Laws, establishing a charity fund, of which the several amounts here named shall constitute the nucleus. This fund may be used for any purpose, still, if used for current expenses, the amount so used will be due to said charity fund.

This will be observing the intentions of the donors, and we can then say, thanks to our Brethren from abroad, that every Lodge in Chicago has a charity fund, separate and distinct from its general fund. I think it will be conceded by every mason in our midst, that the craft of Chicago should see to it, that our brethren from abroad who may reach this city, and find themselves in distress, should be treated with that fraternal consideration which our Fellows throughout the country have extended to us. To do this under our present straightened circumstances, would be like unto the "blind leading the blind." But the Masons of Chicago are citizens of Chicago, and we may therefore safely predict that our present masonic misfortunes will soon be overcome, by that true courage and unexampled energy, which will soon rebuild and re-establish upon yonder black and desolate area, a great and enduring city, in which we hope, in due time, to re-construct our Temples, and extend to every true craftsman a just measure of masonic hospitality.

For a number of years we had a permanent Board of Relief in our city, which did a noble work, and exemplified the true principles of masonry. But I regret to say that this useful organization, after a time, was but poorly supported, and at length was suffered, through neglect, to die.

Brethren, I hold this to be a crying shame, a stigma upon the 4,000 masons of our city. The importance of such an organization cannot be over estimated. What is everybody's business in general, is no one's business in particular, and for each Lodge to dispense alms is, in a measure, impracticable and liable to great abuse and imposition, while a Board of Relief would do this duty more efficiently, and with greater convenience and protection against imposters.

Such a Board should be established, to be composed of a representative from each Lodge in our city, from whom the officers would be chosen. Their duty would be to care for the needs of those only who come from abroad, and not for resident masons.

I assume that our Lodges will have recovered from their misfortunes in three years, and will then be in full tide of prosperity. We have, therefore, thought proper to set apart six-thousand dollars for such a Board, this to be augmented by such sums as may accrue from interest on deposit, say $600.00, (this amount is increased to $844.14, see page 23), and from sale of stock on hand, and other driblets which, when expenses to be incurred hereafter are paid, would amount to say $6,500, or about $2,200 per annum for three years. This amount being hardly adequate for the purpose, I would, as Grand Master, earnestly call upon the several Lodges in the city to contribute 25 cents per member, per annum, which would make about $1,000, or less than five per cent. interest on the funds donated to the Lodges. This with the small interest that would accrue on the unexpended portion in the hands of such Board, would give about $2,600 per year, for the next three years, for the relief of those whose needs require it. Thus, if each Lodge has a charity fund, one half the interest of which will pay their quota, the work is done.

Here we have an opportunity to resuscitate a most excellent organization upon a permanent and encouraging basis.

I earnestly pray that you will respond to it, by sending a representative, with the proposed dues, and be ready to "do unto others as they have done unto you."

Thus, my brethren, we have given an outline of our labors during the past eight months; having administered to the wants of several thousand needy applicants, and in the discharge of our delicate duties, we have, as the agents of our kind donors, endeavored to be just, as well as generous.

We have fed the hungry, clothed the naked, been instrumental in healing the sick, buried the dead, sent the weary traveler on his way rejoicing, given substantial aid to each and every Lodge in our city, and provided for the establishment of a permanent relief fund.

With this, we believe, our organization has fulfilled its mission, and it is hoped that the work has been done in accordance with the written instructions of those whose bounty we have disbursed, and that the course we have pursued will meet their approval.

But notwithstanding, we find in our hands a surplus of Twenty Thousand Dollars, which, under the circumstances, we naturally conceive belongs to those who sent it, or rather, to those whom they represent. It is not difficult, therefore, to determine how it shall be disposed of; because we think it should be clearly understood that no part of this money was sent here for the purpose of making worthless insurance good, nor to start persons in business, nor to disburse it simply because it was sent here, nor to divide among those who have no other claim except that, they want their "share;" for, as before stated, these demands alone would have absorbed over three times the amount received. But we hold the object of the fund was to temporarily relieve the immediate wants of sufferers by the great fire; this accomplished, the balance should be returned. I have therefore, provided as follows:

Of the total amount sent from all quarters, we have ascertained the proportion contributed by each Grand Jurisdiction.

To all States that have sent Four Hundred Dollars and over, we propose to return their respective proportions of the whole sum received. Those which sent less than $400 is retained, since the proportion accruing therefrom would be too insignificant to return. Hence, we find these sums to be 2.05-100 per cent. of the $20,000, while those of $400 and upwards, amount to 97.95-100 per cent. The former sum, like all dribblets, will be placed in the permanent relief fund.

Individual Lodges which have contributed $400 and upward have been considered upon the same basis independently, the amounts due them being deducted from that due their Grand Lodge.

In a number of cases, money amounting to several hundred dollars, was sent from the "craft," and not from any particular Lodge. All such sums are credited to the Jurisdiction from whence it came.

It would be entirely impracticable to return this surplus to each particular Lodge. Indeed, in the majority of cases it would not amount to enough to pay for the trouble. But we find that by aggregating these small amounts, in many cases it makes a handsome sum.

To the State of New York we return their proportion for the benefit of the "Hall and Asylum Fund;" one of the grandest Masonic benevolent institutions ever projected by the fraternity. In all other cases it is returned to the "Charity Fund" of the Grand Lodge, with suitable explanations, and giving a list of their respective subordinates which have contributed the amounts. Thus it will be known to whom the several Grand Lodges are indebted for the donation.

I feel confident that the individual Lodges of our sister Jurisdictions will fully appreciate this disposition of the surplus, and will commend your thoughtful interest in their behalf. Indeed, I have already received letters from Grand Officers of several Jurisdictions, to whom I had intimated your intentions, and they have expressed themselves pleased with the idea.

The following tabulated statement will show the manner of disposing of the surplus:

NOTE.—Interest on deposits, $844.14, and premium on gold drafts, $38.75, amounting to $882.89, have been received since the foregoing table was made, and, therefore, not included.

The amount set apart to be returned, not including the amounts returned to Lodges that sent more than one donation, was $20,000. The amount actually returned was $19,590, or 97.95-100 per cent. of $20,000. The balance, $410, or 2.05-100 per cent., is accounted for by the fact that no returns were made to Jurisdictions that sent less than $400.

Memorandum of Lodges that donated over $400, to whom returns were made, and the amount deducted from the proportion due their Jurisdiction.

First, the name of the Lodge is given, next the amount donated, then the proportion the amount sent bears to the total amount received from the State; and, lastly, the amount returned to the Lodge:

Our work has been of the most delicate character, but I can truly say that this Board, and its agents, have endeavored to disburse the fund with discretion, and with an eye single to the welfare of all concerned. Notwithstanding this, it would be unreasonable to expect that these efforts have been entirely satisfactory to all; and if there are any who think they have cause to complain, let them put themselves in your place, and ask the question, in all seriousness, if they would have done better for the sufferers, better for the donors, and better for the good name of Masonry in Chicago. Let it not be forgotten, also, that a number of the members of this Board were, by the calamity that created this organization, reduced to comparative beggary, but they forgot themselves and went to work with a will, to aid others no worse off.

I have seen members of this Board, presenting a worthy example, standing here day after day, at work, without the hope of reward, needing for themselves just such assistance as they were rendering to others, but declining to accept anything. Yea, it is an honorable and praiseworthy record, that although nearly every member of this Board were great sufferers by the fire, yet the record will show, that with few exceptions, they have received absolutely nothing from the fund, because of their peculiar relations with it.

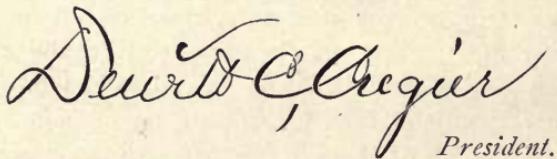

The large amount of money that has been sent me has been paid over to our Treasurer. Every Lodge, or individual, who has contributed, is recorded; and we propose to publish this in full, and send to every Lodge, and other donor, to the end that if any have sent money not so recorded, they may have a chance to let it be known. Indeed, we now and hereafter, invite the closest scrutiny into all our affairs, and if any one shall detect error, or even ambiguity, in our records, we earnestly request that attention may be called to it, to the end that explanation may be made known; and that our labors may be thoroughly examined into, I earnestly recommend that the M. W. Grand Masters of three of our sister Jurisdictions be requested to make us a visit, to examine, investigate and report upon the justice and propriety of our transactions. The high character of such distinguished Masons is sufficient to justify you in endorsing this suggestion. Should these brethren respond to our invitation, we cannot promise them such a reception as we would like, yet we will endeavor to bestow such attention as may be in our power, and will, of course, assume the expense incident to their visit. When such Committee shall pass upon our proceedings, I would recommend that a sufficient number of the general report be suitably printed, and a copy forwarded to every donor.

Our Secretary and Superintendent have given their whole time to this work, and have performed their duties in a satisfactory manner. Upon the former the bulk of the work has been imposed. I would, therefore, recommend that $200 be paid Bro. Duvall, as extra remuneration. To Bro. Morrison, our Superintendent, the sum of $100. I also recommend that the stock now on hand be disposed of as you may deem proper.

In conclusion, brethren, permit me, in behalf of the fraternity, to thank you, individually and collectively, for your zealous and voluntary labors in the holy cause of charity and brotherly love. May you never be called upon to do duty on account of such a fearful disaster as that of the ever memorable 8th and 9th of October last. And for your forbearance, co-operation and fraternal respect, I beg to return my thanks.

For my part in this great work I have but little to say, except this: that nothing but my official position, would have induced me to assume the delicate responsibilities incident to the extraordinary occasion; but my duty was plain, I therefore had no disposition to evade it. I have endeavored to discharge the trust imposed upon me by my position, with integrity, justice and candor. The result is before you, and will be before the Masonic world.

David C. Augur
President.

The foregoing report was received, and, on motion, all the recommendations and suggestions therein contained were adopted, with one dissenting vote. The Secretary's report and accounts were also unanimously approved.

The President was, by vote of the Board, requested, with such assistance as might be required, to prepare and have printed, a general report of the transactions. Also, to dispose of the stock on hand. Whereupon, the "Board of Masonic Relief" adjourned sine die.

These instructions were carried out as soon as practicable; the goods and supplies in store were placed in the hands of William A. Butters & Co., Auctioneers, and sold.

CHICAGO, Aug. 2nd, 1872.

MR. DEWITT C. CREGIER, City:—Dear Sir:—We hand you check for Five Hundred and Sixteen 53-100 ($516.53) Dollars, being amount realized from sale, for account of the Masonic Board of Relief.

WM. A. BUTTERS & CO., Auctioneers.

The loss incurred upon sale of the goods was, by order of the Board, charged to charity account.

The names of all applicants are on record, but for obvious reasons have been omitted in this report.

The following Circular and papers, were sent to each Lodge in the city:

CHICAGO, June 26th, 1872.

*To the W. M., Wardens and Brethren of Lodge No. ,
A. F. and A. Masons:*

DEAR BRETHREN:—The Board of Masonic Relief organized in October last, for the purpose of distributing the funds and other aid sent here for the relief of needy Masons and their families, who were sufferers by the great fire, deeming it expedient to bring its labors to a close, held a final meeting on the 24th instant, at which time it was decided to transfer to the several Lodges in the city, the duty of providing aid for their respective members and others having claims upon them, who may now or hereafter require assistance, and in order to carry out this object, it was deemed proper to apportion to the Lodges in the city an amount in cash from the surplus on hand, in proportion to their respective resident memberships, as shown by the Grand Lodge records.

The membership of your Lodge, in Oct. last, was . Your apportionment, as decided by the Board of Relief, is $ per capita, making a total of $. In addition to this it appears from the records of the Board of Relief, that individual members of your Lodge have received, in the aggregate, assistance from the common fund, to the amount of $, which, with the amount in cash, as herein proposed, makes a grand total of $ disbursed from the relief fund for the benefit of Lodge No.

The amount of cash apportioned to the several Lodges, is awarded upon the express condition, that each of said Lodges will accept the same as a "CHARITY FUND," to be held separate and distinct from its general fund, and be accounted for as such upon your books and records. And that you will amend your By-Laws in such manner as may be necessary to fully provide therefor. It being understood that these conditions shall in no wise interfere with the use or expenditure of this fund for any legitimate purpose which the Lodge may lawfully determine. The object being that when said fund is used for other than purely charity purposes, said fund may be credited with the amount and be repaid the same when practicable, and should be with interest. This provision, however, will be determined by each Lodge.

Furthermore, the Board of Relief, at the meeting aforesaid, having provided a liberal sum of money towards the establishment in our city of a permanent Board of Relief, in the organization and success of which every Lodge should take a deep interest, and have a voice, we, as Grand Master, do most earnestly and fraternally urge upon every Lodge in our city to send one member thereof as a representative, the whole number to constitute said proposed Board, who will, when organized, by selecting proper officers, become the custodians and almoners of said fund, together with that which may hereafter be subscribed thereto, and after such organization shall be effected, we do hereby, in behalf of the craft of Chicago, and in the name of that greatest of all virtues, "Blessed Charity," pray, that each Lodge will, for the present, come forward and assist in maintaining this proposed and much needed and hitherto neglected Masonic Organization. This, we think, can be done under present circumstances, if each Lodge will contribute, say twenty-five cents per member, per annum, which would be less than five per cent. interest on the amount awarded to the Lodges as a Charity Fund.

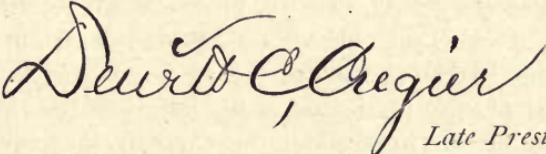

By this means the craft of Chicago may in some small measure reciprocate the good deeds of our Brethren everywhere. Let us provide for the needs of those of our worthy Brethren who may come among us from abroad and find themselves in distress, for it should be for those only that this fund is created, and not for resident Brethren.

The practice of Charity is a duty and a pleasure, which we, as Masons and Christians, should seek to discharge, in the most efficient manner. In no way can it be so effectively and conveniently done as through an organization such as is herein referred to.

We trust the Lodges will take action upon this important question at the earliest practicable time.

In behalf of the late Board of Relief, I am Fraternally,

David C. Aegir
Late President.

The following is suggested as a By-Law, to create and maintain a Charity Fund :

I. This Lodge shall have a "CHARITY FUND," which shall include all moneys that may be donated, or in any other way designed therefor. Both principal and interest of which, when permanently disbursed, shall be for charitable purposes, and not otherwise.

II. Provided, however, that the Lodge, or its duly authorized Officers, (here name such officers, whether trustees or others,) may at any time, when deemed necessary, temporarily transfer the whole, or any amount of said "charity fund" to the general treasury, the same to be refunded, with interest at per cent.

III. No portion of the "charity fund" shall be permanently expended, except by consent of three-fourths of the members present at a stated communication of the Lodge.

CHICAGO, June 26th, 1872.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

Lodges desiring to amend their By-Laws, to meet the above requirements, without regard to time, are hereby empowered so to do, and this shall be sufficient authority therefor. Make due return to me of your doings by virtue hereof.

Given under my hand and seal, this 26th day of June, 1872.

[SEAL.]

David C. Augier
Grand Master.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

This is to certify, that we, the W. M., Wardens and Brethren of Lodge No. A. F. and A. M., in Lodge assembled, do hereby accept the sum of $, awarded us from the surplus in the hands of the late Board of Masonic Relief, and do hereby, in consideration thereof, agree to conform to the conditions and requirements, viz: That we will amend our By-Laws, creating a Charity Fund, to the credit of which the sum herein named shall be placed.

[SEAL.]

Attest,

W. M.
Sec'y.

The Lodges generally acquiesced in the requirements, and most of them have sent a representative to the permanent Board of Relief, which is now fully organized.

SPECIAL REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MASONIC RELIEF.

CHICAGO, February 1st, 1872.

To the Masonic Fraternity throughout the United States, Canada and Elsewhere:

BRETHREN:—The calamity which laid waste and destroyed the fairest portion of our city, in October last, entailed upon all classes of our people a degree of misfortune and distress which has evoked the sympathy and condolence of the civilized world.

The Masonic Fraternity, as such, of this city, have, in common with others, experienced a sad reverse.

A number of beautiful Halls, together with the records, jewels, paraphernalia and other property of eighteen Lodges, two Chapters, one Council, two Commanderies, and four bodies of the Scottish Rite, were totally destroyed.* Thus, in a few hours, the Craft of Chicago were reduced from a condition of comparative affluence and comfort, to that of poverty and distress. For a moment the brethren of our city were enveloped in a cloud of misfortune, whose density was indeed appalling. But, happily, in every community, there were hundreds of Freemasons who soon dispelled the darkness. As citizens they have not only manifested a deep and heartfelt interest in the welfare of our stricken people, by generous contributions of money and supplies for the relief of our citizens generally, but in addition to this, the great Brotherhood, from every quarter, have sent munificent gifts of money and supplies for the relief of their needy brethren, and the widows and orphans of deceased Masons.

Brethren, the promptness with which your noble charity has been forwarded, has proved most effectual, and the kind words accompanying your acceptable gifts, will linger in the hearts of those who have felt the warm glow of fraternal charity, long after the black and hideous monuments, which are evidences of our calamity, have passed away.

Charity has ever been esteemed among Masons the crowning virtue, and its practical exemplification illustrates your devotion to the principles of our benign institution, and goes far to strengthen and embellish the character of a fraternity, who have for so many, many years, given proofs of powerful and generous qualities.

The brethren of Chicago find themselves confronted with a debt of gratitude, alike profound, formidable and sacred. It is this sacredness that induces us to state, that, although our task of caring for the needy is not by any means finished, yet we deem it not only just and proper, but a most agreeable duty to say that your unequalled beneficence and liberality have placed in our hands a fund that we believe to be ample to meet the demands which can be legitimately made upon it. We, therefore, with that gratitude which words are inadequate to express, take pleasure in announcing that further contributions to our present resources will not be necessary.

It is not our purpose at this time to render a detailed report of our agency in your behalf; this we hope to do to every donor as soon as practicable, but we may give a synopsis of what has been done, to date.

The Board of Relief is composed of a President, Vice-President, Treasurer, Recording and Corresponding Secretaries, Superintendent and Thirteen Members, who hold meetings once each week.

The rooms of the Board are kept open daily, (except Sunday,) from 9 A. M. until 5 P. M. The business is conducted by the Recording Secretary and Superintendent, with such assistance as is found necessary to dispense your bounty.

The Board have endeavored to devote the funds pursuant to instructions, viz: to those who are worthy and rendered needy by the great fire.

Since the organization, about three thousand persons consisting of brethren, widows and children, have been substantially aided with everything calculated to relieve their wants and enhance comfort.

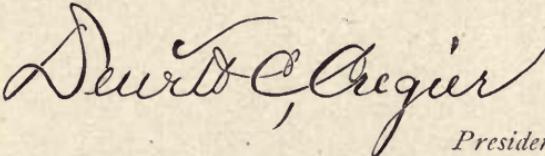

A very full and minute record has been kept of all our transactions, which, in due time, will be submitted to you, giving the name of Lodge or person, and amount of each contribution received.

In addition to the above, about $400.00 will accrue from premium on gold, and possibly a small amount for interest on deposits.

It will be observed that none of the Lodges, as such, have received any assistance from the above fund, although the majority of them, by reason of the total destruction of their Halls and property, including, in many cases, their accumulated funds, (making a loss in the aggregate of over $90,000.00,) together with the worthlessness of their insurance, involves much embarrassment. Nevertheless, the terrible ordeal through which the craft of Chicago have passed, has neither scorched their zeal nor abated their energy, but through your sympathy and aid, Freemasonry still survives in our city, and we trust that in the future, as in the past, brethren, from wheresoever they may hail, will find in Chicago a continuation of generous hospitality, created by warm and grateful hearts, and evinced by the strong grip of friendship and brotherly love.

Fraternally,

David C. Chequer
President.

BRETHREN:—In addition to the report of the President, and the statements and tables furnished by the Secretary, the members of the Board desire to say, in conclusion, that it seems unnecessary to prolong this record. The foregoing is ample and full. Nothing has been omitted that will prevent you from having a clear understanding of every detail connected with our transactions.

You know what we would say of your loving, fraternal generosity, if the poverty of language did not prevent. Brethren, you have fed the hungry, clothed the naked, and bound up the wounds of the afflicted. Your reward is in the Grand Lodge above. For, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

Thousands of truly thankful hearts are invoking the Divine blessing upon you and yours: and not until "the wicked cease from troubling, and the weary are at rest," will it ever be known how much humanity is indebted for the example of our noble Brotherhood. You have erected a monument to Masonry as enduring as time. Temples will decay; empires disappear, amid the cycles of coming ages; enemies traduce and traitors endeavor to compass its destruction; still it will stand, because our Sovereign Grand Master is the Master Builder, and you his faithful craftsmen.

For a short time after the destruction of our city men stood aghast! The calamity was so appalling that men shrank from its contemplation. Standing amid the terrible desolation, the question involuntarily sprang from the lips of thousands, "What shall we do?" Brethren, it was literally true "that there were no designs upon the trestle board, and the craft were in confusion." Were we in a time like this worthy of condemnation if, for the moment, we did forget that Masonry, as the instrument of a Beneficent Father, had, for ages, been inculcating and enforcing the practice of the Divine virtues of Brotherly Love, Relief and Truth? The losses, the trials and sufferings of our people had nearly lost us our faith; but when we turned from the dreary, chilling picture of our distress, we saw the beautiful tendrils of brotherly love clustering around a Father's promise. We then saw, with Faith's unbounded vision, that succor was at hand. We then felt the throbings of the great fraternal heart, as they were borne to us by every breeze and from every clime.

Brethren, you inspired us with both faith and hope; strength took the place of weakness, and men grappled with the stern facts of the hour with a determination that has been unparalleled in the history of disaster. But for your love for the noble tenets of our profession; but for a world's generous response to our needs, Chicago would now be slumbering in her despair, instead of rising, Phœnix-like, from the ashes of her desolation. When you fed and clothed us, you rebuilded our desolate places.

In conclusion, we desire to present, for your very fraternal consideration and esteem, the President of this Board, who, by his untiring attention to his duties, has been able to present you a report which reflects so much credit upon the craft of our city and State. You cannot apprehend the perplexities which surrounded his labors. He was, de-facto, your almoner.

Our Treasurer, whose fidelity was never questioned before the fire, cannot, surely, be questioned now.

Our Secretary has won for himself a distinction that entitles him to your entire confidence and esteem. Neither the President, Treasurer, Secretary or Superintendent need any praise at our hands. The record, the proof of their zeal and fidelity is before you. If any brother require further evidence, we confidently and unhesitatingly refer him to the hundreds of our distressed brethren, the widow and the orphan, who to-day thank God that He called those brethren to these high and holy trusts.

REPORT OF THE AUDITING COMMISSION.

Pursuant to the recommendation of the President, and with the concurrence of the Board, to invite a commission of Grand Masters from abroad, to examine and report upon the accounts and proceedings, in connection with the disbursement of the relief fund, invitations were extended to Hon. Samuel C. Perkins, Grand Master of Pennsylvania, Hon. Charles F. Stansbury, Grand Master of the District of Columbia, and Hon. Ozias P. Waters, Grand Master of Iowa, to visit Chicago and act as such commission.

These distinguished men and masons did us the honor to comply with the request, reaching Chicago, accompanied by Worshipful Brother Charles H. Kingston, Private Secretary to the Grand Master of Pennsylvania, on the seventeenth of September, 1872.

An occasional Grand Lodge was convened by the Grand Master of Illinois, and the Most Worshipful Brethren were received with the honors due their stations, and accorded such poor hospitality as the time and occasion afforded.

After interesting and fraternal addresses by each of the visitors and an interchange of social courtesies, the Grand Lodge was closed, and the commission, with Brother Kingston as Secretary, immediately entered upon the discharge of their duties.

Every book, paper, voucher or other evidence bearing upon the transactions of the Board, together with the correspondence in connection therewith, were placed at their disposal, and every assistance and facility rendered to insure a critical examination.

The subjoined exhaustive and able report of the commission speaks for itself, and leaves us little to say, except to express in behalf of the Fraternity of Chicago, our earnest and hearty thanks for the invaluable services rendered by these brethren, and a just appreciation of their generous sacrifice of valuable time and personal convenience, incident to a journey of hundreds of miles, and a lengthened absence from their important and pressing official duties.

MASONIC HALL, Chicago, Sept. 19, 1872.

M. W. DEWITT C. CREGIER,

Grand Master of Masons of Illinois:

M. W. Sir and Brother:—The undersigned have the honor to enclose the Report which they have prepared, as embodying the result of their labors in the discharge of the duty to which your courtesy invited them, of examining the proceedings of the Masonic Board of Relief for sufferers by the great fire at Chicago, in October, 1871.

We should do injustice to our own feelings, were we to suffer the opportunity to pass, of expressing our personal appreciation of the motives which prompted the Board to desire an examination and review of the proceedings.

The action is alike honorable to the Board and an honor to the teachings of our ancient institution.

Nor can we close our labors without tendering to you, M. W. Sir, personally, and the brethren at Chicago, our sincere and fraternal thanks for the attention and courtesy shown us during our visit.

With sincere wishes for the prosperity of the M. W. Grand Lodge of Illinois, and the earnest prayer that the Great Architect of the universe may preserve the Lodges throughout her jurisdiction from all calamity and peril,

We remain, most truly and fraternally,

Sam C. Perkins

Grand Master of Pennsylvania.

TO THE CONTRIBUTORS
OF THE
MASONIC RELIEF FUND
FOR THE SUFFERERS BY THE CHICAGO FIRE.

CHICAGO, September, 5872.

The undersigned, having been honored by the Grand Master of Masons of Illinois, with a request to act as a Commission, to examine and report upon the accounts and proceedings of the Masonic Board of Relief, charged with administering the funds contributed by the Masonic Fraternity of this and other countries, for the benefit of the sufferers by the great Chicago Fire of 1871, have performed the duty assigned them; and it should be fully understood, at the outset, that this duty has been requested of the undersigned, through the voluntary act of the Board of Relief, prompted by a high sense of delicacy and honor, and not from any feeling or intimation, on the part of the donors, that any investigation was required.

The undersigned, met at the Masonic Temple, in Chicago, September 18th and 19th, 1872. Grand Master Samuel C. Perkins, of Pennsylvania, acting as President of the Commission, and Worshipful Brother Charles H. Kingston, of Pennsylvania, as Secretary.

They proceeded to make a careful examination of all the books, papers and vouchers of the Board of Relief, and of the system adopted by them for the custody and administration of the fund, and for the preservation of a record of their proceedings under the important trust confided to them.

All the books, papers and vouchers of the Board, and of its officers and committees, were submitted to the undersigned, together with the final report of the management of the fund, which exhibit, in detail, all the statistics necessary to show the very thorough and exact manner in which this important trust has been administered.

Keeping in view the fact that this fund was contributed specifically for the relief of master masons and their families who were sufferers by the great fire, the Board of Relief, from the outset, adopted the principle of satisfying themselves, personally, that each applicant relieved came within the provisions of the trust; was worthy, and in actual need of the aid granted. So far as practicable, the applicants were furnished with such articles of immediate necessity for their household and personal wants as their needs required, and the Board, by the liberality of the merchants with whom they dealt, and of the railroad companies over whose roads transportation of applicants relieved was needed, were enabled to obtain supplies and transportation at greatly reduced cost. Only a small amount was disbursed in direct appropriations of money. The Board did not regard the fund as intended to make good mere pecuniary losses by the fire, or in any sense an insurance fund, but as contributed for the temporary relief of the immediate and pressing necessities of direct sufferers by the fire.

Among the large number of applicants it was too much to expect that no case of attempted fraud and imposition would occur. But a careful personal examination of the records of the Board and of their detailed action in individual cases, satisfied the undersigned that the greatest diligence had been exercised in their investigation; while at the same time no unnecessary formalities were permitted to exist to prevent relief being afforded promptly.

All money received for the fund was paid over to the Treasurer, and by him deposited to the credit of a separate account in bank, and paid out by checks upon orders drawn by the President and attested by the Secretary of the Board.

The immediate disbursements were made by the Secretary, under the supervision of the executive committee, and a full and detailed report was presented at each monthly meeting of the Board, examined and vouched for by a sub-committee, and approved by the Board. The books of the Secretary and Treasurer were examined and compared with the vouchers by the undersigned, and found to be correct, in every particular, and kept with a degree of accuracy and fullness of detail which cannot be too highly commended.

It was the earnestly expressed wish of all the officers and members of the Board, with the majority of whom we had the pleasure of meeting, that the undersigned would make their investigation and review thorough and searching, to the last detail, and such has been our endeavor; and this report is the result of a full and minute personal examination, influenced solely by a desire to arrive at the truth, and to declare our conclusions to the fraternity at large, as the convictions of our minds, under a due sense, as well of the obligations of the respective offices which it is our honor to hold in the craft, as of the special trust devolved upon us in this particular regard.

The entire amount of cash donations received was--	$83,089 06
In addition to which supplies of goods were sent valued at-----	7,545 44
Making a total of-----	$90,634 50
Of this amount there has been disbursed, in the relief of applicants, allotments to Chicago Lodges, the expenses of the Board, and a donation to Chicago Masonic Board of Relief, as set forth, in detail, in the report which is to be printed-----	$67,414 04
There has been returned to the donors a surplus of--	21,825 89
And there has been retained to meet the expenses of printing the report, and this commission -----	1,394 57
	$90,634 50

The orders drawn upon the Treasurer had not all been presented at the date of this report, nor had all the checks drawn by him been presented to the bank for payment; but the undersigned are satisfied that the money is on hand and in the bank, to the credit of his account, as Treasurer of the Board, to meet the outstanding orders and checks, on presentation.

The undersigned find that a careful, exact and clear record has been kept of every transaction, that the money received and disbursed is accurately accounted for, and that the disbursements are supported by vouchers which present, in minutest detail, the exact history of every charity bestowed, and allow every transaction to be reviewed in all its attendant circumstances. Every precaution which prudence could suggest has been taken to secure the faithful application of the fund to the beneficiaries for whom it was designed by the donors.

The detailed report prepared for publication by the Board was submitted to and carefully examined and approved by the undersigned.

It would be impossible to speak too highly of the character of the record which has been preserved of transactions so multifarious and minute, and the undersigned would do injustice to the impression made upon them by this examination should they fail to express their unqualified approbation of the manner in which the Board have administered the trust confided to them by the Fraternity.

Respectfully and Fraternally submitted by

Sam C. Perkins

Grand Master of Pennsylvania.

Chas. F. Lansbury

O. P. Watkins.

CONTRIBUTIONS OF MONEY AND SUPPLIES.

The following is a list of Money, Goods, Clothing, Provisions, etc., which have been received by this Board, for distribution; and also all that came before the Board was fully organized, as far as we have been able to obtain a record of the same. It is believed that we received every cent of the money forwarded to us. Previous to October 24th, quite an amount of goods had been received from our friends, and also from the supplies so generously sent to the citizens generally, which were distributed at once, and, owing to the hurry and confusion then existing, without record.

We had notice of goods shipped us, that were received by the Chicago Relief and Aid Society, and distributed by them, but upon evidence that the goods were intended for the Fraternity, the Officers of the Society replaced the same.

If any of our friends fail to find their gifts recorded, they have the explanation here.

In response to an address issued to the Masonic Lodges of Maryland by the Grand Master, M. W. John H. B. Latrobe, contributions were received by the Grand Treasurer, amounting to $3,456.62, for the sufferers by the fires at Chicago, in Michigan and Wisconsin; to be equally divided between the three suffering districts. How this money was disposed of will be explained in the following extracts from the correspondence.

Extract from letter of M. W. H. L. Palmer, G. M., of Wisconsin, to the M. W. G. Master, of Maryland, acknowledging receipt of $1,152.21: * * * * * "The number of Masons who suffered by the fires in our State is limited, and the fund raised here, with some additions heretofore made to it from abroad, is ample for their relief. * * * * If you will pardon me for the suggestion, I think the fund designed for Wisconsin is more needed in Chicago." * * * * *

Extract from letter of the President of this Board, to the M. W. G. Master of Maryland, acknowledging the receipt of $2,304.62: * * * * * "You observe that the contributions of the Masons of Maryland is for the benefit of the sufferers generally by the great fire. I desire to say, M. W. Sir, that all money coming to our Board is disbursed to Masons only, sufferers by the fire. As we have no means of reaching the masses, I am of the opinion that the amount forwarded by you should be handed over to the Chicago Relief and Aid Society." * * * * *

Extract from letter of President of this Board, to the M. W. G. Master of Maryland: * * * * * "Pursuant to your instructions, I have placed in the hands of the Chicago Relief and Aid Society the certificate of deposit for $2,304.62, contributed by our beloved Brethren of your jurisdiction to the sufferers generally by the late disastrous conflagration in our city." * * *

CHICAGO RELIEF AND AID SOCIETY,
Standard Hall, Cor. Michigan Avenue and 13th Street, }
CHICAGO, JANUARY 18TH, 1872. }

DEWITT C. CREGIER, ESQ., Pres't and G. M. of Masons in Illinois:

DEAR SIR: Your valued favor of the 12th inst. addressed to our Chairman, Mr. Dexter, with your remittance of $2,304.62, for benefit of our sufferers by fire, has been received, and is most gratefully acknowledged.

To your brother Masons of the State of Maryland, we desire to return our heartfelt thanks for this truly munificent gift, and this Society, as almoners of this great charity, also tender to your Board their appreciation of this handsome addition to the Relief Fund, on which some ten thousand families are even yet dependent for their partial or entire support. In a future publication of our cash donations, this good gift will appear.

Yours, very truly,

GEORGE M. PULLMAN.

This donation was sent by the Sir Knights of Ivanhoe Commandery, No. 17, and the Fraternity at Council Bluffs. The money had been collected to entertain the Grand Commandery and Grand Chapter of Iowa, which was soon to meet at Council Bluffs. The following extract from a letter will explain :

COUNCIL BLUFFS, IOWA, Oct. 10th, 1871.

D. C. CREGIER, Grand Master A. F. & A. Masons:

Dear Brother :—Our Grand Commandery and Chapter are to meet next week. We have raised five or six hundred dollars towards a banquet for them. That money is now yours. We cannot think of banqueting whilst our Brethren in Chicago are suffering. * * * To be distributed as you think best. * * * Fraternally Yours,

[Extract from the Proceedings of the Grand Lodge of California.]

MORNING SESSION, Oct. 11th, 1871.

Resolved, That Five Thousand Dollars, in coin, of the funds of this Grand Lodge, now in the hands of the Trustees of the Reserve Fund, be donated and immediately forwarded to the Grand Master of Masons in Illinois, in aid of the sufferers by the late conflagration in Chicago. * * * * And it was unanimously adopted by the Grand Lodge.

Resolved, That, as a further evidence of our practical sympathy, the box of Masonic Charity be placed upon the altar, at 2 o'clock this afternoon, and that the Brethren be requested to cast their offerings therein, as God has blessed and favored them; and that the money thus contributed be also transmitted by our Grand Master, without delay, to the Grand Master of Illinois, to be disbursed according to his own judgment, for the relief of destitute Masons and their families. Which resolution was adopted.

AFTERNOON SESSION, Oct. 11th, 1871.

This being the hour appointed at the morning session, the contribution box was placed upon the altar, and the sum of One Thousand and Five Dollars, in coin, was found to have been contributed by members of the Grand Lodge, as a further donation to the sufferers by the disaster in Chicago.

CONCLUSION.

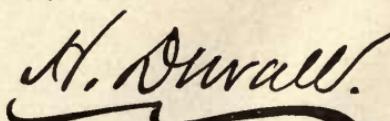

It is deemed proper to state that the gold drafts were sent to New York for collection, and when the returns were made the premium was credited in the aggregate. In the account of contributions of cash received, the premium on gold drafts is credited at ten and one-tenth per cent., in all cases, except where we were able to identify the draft, and credit the actual amount received, as the amount of premium received was within a fraction of that sum ; but when the final statement of account was rendered by the bank, the premium on a Four Hundred Dollar gold draft, amounting to Fifty-one Dollars and fifty cents, had not been credited. This additional premium would have increased the percentage to within a slight fraction of twelve per cent. The above mentioned amount, and Seventy-seven Dollars and forty cents, a final credit by the bank for interest, is in the hands of Bro. D. C. Cregier, an acknowledgment of which will be found in the supplemental cash account, on last page of the appendix.

This record would not be complete unless the eloquent appeals to the Craft of the various Jurisdictions were made a part of it. We therefore insert, as an appendix, so far as we have been able to obtain the same, all that relates to the calls for the aid so liberally forwarded by those kind hearts who so fully realized that "it is better to give than to receive." Also, letters and extracts from letters received in acknowledgment of amounts forwarded to various Grand Jurisdictions and Lodges, as their proportion of the surplus returned.

Thus ends this glorious record—glorious in every sense, for while many gave of their abundance, others were obliged to deny themselves of their accustomed comforts to enable them to help their then well nigh despondent Brethren of Chicago. The very smallness of some of the donations received demonstrates this fact. "Accept my mite," was asked time and again.

Blessed Charity ! First of the Heaven born, and Keystone of our Mystic Fabric.

Fraternally,

Recording Secretary.

APPEAL FOR CHICAGO.

To the Worshipful Masters, Wardens, and Brethren of all Lodges of Free and Accepted Masons in the State of New York:

BRETHREN:—A calamity, one of the most appalling either of ancient or modern times, has befallen one of the fairest, and hitherto most prosperous cities of our Union. Within a brief space of time, the devastating elements has swept out of existence the public and private edifices of Chicago, destroying millions of dollars worth of property, and leaving homeless and penniless thousands of its people, among whom are many of our Brethren and their families. The cry of distress, and the prayer for relief, speedy and sufficient, reaches our ears; our hearts should not be shut to the appeal, nor our hands be idle in extending aid. We should show that our Ancient Order is founded upon Brotherly Love, and that we are ever willing to extend relief to suffering humanity.

Therefore, I, John H. Anthon, Grand Master of Masons of the State of New York, desire to lay before the Masons of the State of New York, the appeal of our suffering Brethren of Chicago, and all the desolate and oppressed of that afflicted city, in order that a fund may be raised for their immediate relief: and I do fraternally and earnestly beseech my Brethren, to give towards this object as liberally as their means will allow. I suggest contributions in money, knowing that Relief Committees will be organized, and that such sums as may be raised will be disbursed by them in a proper and efficient manner. Contributions sent in drafts on New York, to the order of the Grand Master, at his office, No. 271, Broadway, will be by him forwarded to Chicago.

J. H. ANTHON.

Grand Master's Office, New York, Oct. 9, 1871.

GRAND LODGE OF MASSACHUSETTS.

BOSTON, October 10, 1871.

To the Master, Wardens and Brethren of our several Lodges :

The terrible conflagration at Chicago, has thrown our Brethren there into great need and suffering. They require the moneys of the Craft to give them food, clothing and shelter. Upon receipt of this, please collect by subscription from the members of your Lodge, or vote from your funds such an amount as you can, consistently, and forthwith forward it to our Grand Secretary, Charles H. Titus, Masonic Temple, Boston, by whom it will be forwarded to our suffering, houseless, destitute Brethren in Chicago. Let Massachusetts not be behind in this great work of Charity.

"Do good unto all, but more especially unto those of the household of the faithful."

Fraternally,

WILLIAM S. GARDNER,

Grand Master.

GRAND LODGE OF CONNECTICUT.

OFFICE OF THE GRAND MASTER.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Oct. 11, A. L. 5871.

To the Masons of Connecticut :

The awful calamity which has befallen our Brethren in Chicago, calls upon the Fraternity for the prompt and generous exercise of our Masonic Charity, that relief may be extended at once to our homeless Brethren, and their starving families. I, therefore, fraternally and earnestly, call upon our Lodges and individual Masons, to contribute to this end as promptly and liberally as their means will allow. Let each Lodge, at its first meeting, therefore, donate such sums as they can. Contributions, sent in checks or drafts, to the order of the Grand Master, at Bridgeport, will be promptly acknowledged, and sent to Chicago, to our R. W. Representative near the M. W. Grand Lodge of Illinois.

Fraternally Yours,

OFFICE OF THE GRAND MASTER OF ANCIENT FREE AND ACCEPTED MASONS OF THE STATE OF NEW JERSEY.

TENAFLY, October 10th, 1871.

To the Worshipful Master, Wardens and Brethren of ----- Lodge, No. -

BRETHREN:—A calamity unparalleled in the annals of our country, has befallen one of the most flourishing cities of the West. In a single day thousands of families in the city of Chicago have been rendered homeless and houseless, and are now without food. Their destitute condition appeals to all for sympathy and aid.

The mission of Masonry is the relief of want and woe, and never before have we had so great an opportunity to demonstrate its teachings by our acts.

Therefore, I, Wm. E. Pine, Grand Master of Masons of the State of New Jersey, fraternally appeal to your sympathies for aid in behalf of our suffering Brethren and their families in that afflicted city.

Contributions in money or draft, sent to Bro. Jos. H. Hough, Grand Secretary, at Trenton, subject to my order, will be forwarded without delay, to M. W. Dewitt C. Cregier, Grand Master of Masons of Illinois, to be distributed as his good judgment may dictate.

Fraternally,

GRAND LODGE OF PENNSYLVANIA, F. AND A. M.

EXTRA GRAND COMMUNICATION,

Held at Philadelphia, October 22, A. D. 1871, A. L. 5871.

P. G. M. Brother James Page offered the following, which was adopted, viz:

WHEREAS, The City of Chicago has been overtaken by a dreadful and appalling calamity, by which it has been reduced almost to a waste of burning ruins, and its people, to a large extent rendered houseless and homeless, and thousands of them are now suffering for want of food and clothing:

Therefore, be it Resolved, That this Grand Lodge do at once contribute in aid of the afflicted of this terribly smitten city, the sum of One Thousand Dollars, the same to be remitted to the M. W. the Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Illinois, at Chicago, to be by him distributed to and among our suffering Brethren there, as to him shall seem to be most wise and judicious.

Resolved, That this Grand Lodge earnestly recommends to all the subordinate Lodges within her jurisdiction, the propriety of contributing immediately, to the best of their respective abilities, in aid of their suffering Brethren in Chicago, and that all sums of money set apart by them for such purpose, be placed at the disposal of the R. W. Grand Master, to be by him in like manner remitted to the M. W. the Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Illinois, at Chicago.

Resolved, That a special Committee of Seven, be appointed to appeal to the several Lodges in the State in furtherance of the object of these resolutions.

Extract from the minutes.

JOHN THOMSON, Grand Secretary.

The R. W. Grand Master was pleased to appoint the following named Brethren as the Committee alluded to above:

Past Grand Master Brother James Page, of Lodge No. 126.

Brother E. Harper Jeffries,	"	"	186.
" Charles D. Freeman,	"	"	130.
" Conrad B. Day,	"	"	52.
" Alfred Slack,	"	"	318.
" James M. Porter,	"	"	152.
" William Himrod, Jr.,	"	"	362.

W. M., Officers and Brethren of Lodge No. -----

We fraternally call your attention to the foregoing preamble and resolutions of the Grand Lodge, adopted at a Special G. C., on the evening of the 12th September, 1871, and invoke in the name of Brotherly-Love and Masonic Charity, your early, cordial and prompt action in the premises.

A terrible calamity has befallen the people of Chicago. The almost entire destruction by fire of their once prosperous and beautiful city, is an event that causes every bosom to thrill with sorrow, and sends its appeal to every humane heart. The desolation which has overwhelmed that enterprising community, is without a parallel in the history of this country, and in its extent, without comparison in modern times. The wailing cry from the houseless, the homeless, the destitute, the sick and the suffering, is heard throughout our land. They need shelter, they need raiment, they need food. Shall Masonry in our Jurisdiction close its ears to their touching and heart-rending cry for help? We know it will not, but that the Grand Lodge doing all that she can in view of her present financial condition, and appealing to her children, will be cheerfully and promptly aided by them, in her effort to grant relief and impart consolation to our suffering Brethren in the City of the Lake, in this the hour of their desolation and sorrow.

"And now abideth Faith, Hope and Charity, these three, but the greatest of these is Charity."

Affectionately and Fraternally,

Committee,	JAMES PAGE, E. HARPER JEFFRIES, CHAS. D. FREEMAN, CONRAD B. DAY, ALFRED SLACK, JAS. M. PORTER, WM. HIMROD, Jr.,

MASONIC HALL, PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 13, 1871.

It is requested that all contributions made by the Lodges be forwarded to the R. W. Grand Secretary, John Thomson, Masonic Hall, Philadelphia, who will acknowledge their receipt, and transmit them as the donations of the respective Lodges to the M. W. Grand Master of Illinois, to be disbursed, under his direction, for the relief of our suffering Brethren in Chicago.

R. A. LAMBERTON, Grand Master.

[Extract from Grand Master Chas. F. Stansbury's Address.]

* * * On the 8th and 9th of October, an appalling calamity which has stirred the sympathy of the whole world, befell the great city of Chicago, in the destruction of its fairest and richest portion by fire. You are all familiar with the facts, as they have been given to the public by the press; but no description can convey an adequate impression of the vast extent and awful character and effects of the conflagration. Among the sufferers were many of our Brethren, who, as individuals, had their homes and places of business swept away; and, as Masons, shared in the common destruction of their Lodge rooms and other places of assembly, and of all the precious archives and relics which were gathered in them.

When the news reached our city I immediately called a mass meeting of the Fraternity, which was held in the Temple, on the evening of October 11th. Fifteen Hundred Dollars were paid in on that occasion for the relief of our suffering Brethren; and the sum was subsequently increased to $2,868 40, which was conveyed by a special committee to Chicago, and handed over to the Grand Master of Masons of Illinois. The committee was received with the greatest courtesy and kindness by the Grand Master and other Brethren of Chicago, who accepted our contribution with every expression of appreciation of the promptitude with which it was offered, and the fraternal feeling in which it had its motive. Since the return of the Committee a further sum has been collected, which, it is expected, will be considerably increased by the proceeds of the Concert to be given on the 16th inst., by the Masonic Choir, for the benefit of the same benevolent object.

Our thanks are due to Hon. John W. Garrett, President of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, and to D. W. Caldwell, Superintendent of the Road from Columbus to Chicago, for their liberality and courtesy in providing free transportation for our offerings, and passes to and from Chicago for the members of our Relief Committee. * * *

GRAND LODGE OF KENTUCKY.

[Extract from the Grand Master's Address.]

* * * "The Home erected by Kentucky liberality, as a Home for the homeless widows and orphans of deceased Kentucky Masons, and those in charge thereof, without violating the trust confided to them, enabled Kentucky, through Past Grand Master Charles Tilden, and Brothers T. L. Jefferson, C. Henry Finck and A. H. Gardner, to be the first to offer a temporary home to the suffering women and children of desolate Chicago.

That committee, from personal investigation, ascertained that eighteen Blue Lodges, two Commanderies, all the Scottish Rite and Chapter rooms of that city, had been destroyed by the fire fiend, and our afflicted Brethren realized that there was something in Masonry, when a committee from a distant State came and said ; " Give us your women and children, and we will take them to a home where they will have a brother's care, until you are again severally in possession of happy homes of your own."

There is a reasonable probability of that offer being accepted ; and if it is, I know the Masonic heart too well to doubt its being sacredly fulfilled.

And to the end that this Grand Lodge may do its part towards this great beneficence, I recommend that a specific sum be appropriated from our Treasury to be used in extending the proper relief." * * *

GRAND MASTER'S OFFICE, GRAND LODGE OF THE STATE OF LOUISIANA, FREE AND ACCEPTED MASONS.

NEW ORLEANS, October 16th, 1871.

To the W. M., Officers and Members of ----- Lodge No-----

BRETHREN :—A heavy calamity has fallen upon the city of Chicago ; an immense number of its inhabitants have been deprived of their property, and rendered homeless and destitute by the terrible fire which has almost destroyed their late flourishing and beautiful city.

The people of our land, also of the old world, have promptly responded to the cry for assistance ; food, clothing and money has been liberally given to supply the immediate pressing wants of the sufferers, and in this noble benevolence our Fraternity have not been behind their fellow citizens ; but we, as Masons, have a duty to perform toward our own Brethren in that stricken city. In addition to this, extensive conflagrations have occurred in Michigan and other States of the Northwest—property and life have been sacrificed ; whole sections of country laid waste, and the severity of a Northern winter awaits the unfortunate survivors. I therefore call upon the Lodges and Masons of Louisiana to contribute from their means in aid of our Brethren, many thousands of whom are, with their families, among the sufferers. Let us promptly show our sympathy with the suffering members of that Fraternity who in the darkest hours of trouble and misfortune never fail to respond freely to calls for fraternal aid.

SAM'L M. TODD, Grand Master.

GRAND LODGE OF MISSOURI.

RELIEF FOR CHICAGO.

[Extract from the Grand Master's Address.]

The most terrible of all destroyers has just accomplished his master-piece in the world's history, and chose for his field a sister city in our neighboring Jurisdiction of Illinois. The fire-king has swept a great metropolis out of existence, and made houseless and homeless two hundred thousand people. Chicago is a story of yesterday. Little or nothing is left of one of the wonders of our Continent, but a vast waste of coals and ashes, and a quarter of a million of suffering people, who lived in or depended upon the doomed city for support. The jaws of an earthquake never opened and closed with such crushing effect upon the lives and substance of men, as the habitations and fortunes of our Brethren of Chicago have been swallowed up by this dire calamity. I have no words to express what I feel in this connection, and what I know must be the sense of the Grand Lodge of Missouri. Let us not give play to our feelings but in action. The misfortunes and needs of so large a mass of humanity appeal, not alone to our charity as Masons, but to our manhood. Let us do all we can do promptly, and, while we lament the necessity, be proud of our condition to respond to the cry for sympathy and aid. Chicago was of wood. What we give now will contribute to rebuild the city of more enduring marble. I recommend the reference of the matter to a special committee, with instructions to act at once.

OFFICE OF THE GRAND HIGH PRIEST OF ROYAL ARCH MASONS IN IOWA.

DUBUQUE, October 24, 1871.

To the M. E. H. P., King, Scribe and Companions of ----- Chapter No. -- :

COMPANIONS:—The recent direful calamity which visited Chicago, destroyed a large number of Masonic altars, and rendered homeless many hundreds of our Brethren. They appeal for aid to the Craft. Universal and nobly is that appeal being responded to, not only in America, but also abroad. Iowa should not be in the rear in this movement. Already the Grand Chapter has given Two Hundred Dollars to our suffering frators. Will not the Chapters, all and singular, likewise heed the cry of the needy? I suggest that each Chapter make a donation of at least $5, forwarding that, or a larger sum to me, and I will see that it is promptly remitted to the M. W. Grand Master of Masons in Illinois, Brother Dewitt C. Cregier; or if the contributors prefer, they may at once address that distinguished Grand Officer. “If it were done, when 't is done, then 't were well it were done quickly;” therefore, do I urge it upon you, Companions, to give this matter immediate attention.

EDWARD A. GUILBERT, Grand High Priest.

OFFICE OF GRAND SECRETARY, GRAND LODGE OF KANSAS.

LEAVENWORTH, October 27, 1871.

DEAR SIR AND BROTHERS:—In compliance with the order of the M. W. Grand Lodge of Kansas, I hasten to lay before your Lodge, for its immediate consideration, the following resolutions, which were adopted at our last Annual Communication, held on the 19th instant, to-wit :

Resolved, That this M. W. G. Lodge of A. F. and A. M. of Kansas, in Annual Convention, and in behalf of their Brethren under this Masonic Jurisdiction, extend to the Brethren in Chicago their profound sympathy in the affliction and distress they are called upon to endure in consequence of the recent great fire in that city.

Resolved, That the sum of Five Hundred Dollars be, and the same is hereby appropriated from the General Fund of this Grand Lodge, for the relief of our Chicago Brethren.

Resolved, That in addition to the foregoing appropriation, this Grand Lodge earnestly recommend to the subordinate Lodges of this State, to liberally contribute for the relief of our Chicago Brethren ; and further recommend that such contributions should aggregate an amount in dollars equal at least to the membership of the Order in this State.

Resolved, That the contributions from the subordinate Lodges, contemplated in the foregoing resolution, shall be transmitted, by the proper Officers of each Lodge, to the M. W. Grand Master of this Jurisdiction, who shall forward the same, together with the Five Hundred Dollars appropriated under the foregoing second resolution, to the M. W. Grand Master of the State of Illinois, the whole to be by him disbursed in such a manner as he may deem best to relieve the sufferings of our Chicago Brethren, and, in his judgement, will best subserve the wishes and intentions of this Grand Lodge.

You will advise the M. W. Grand Master, John M. Price, of Atchison, Kansas, of your action at as early a day as possible.

Yours, Fraternally,

JOHN H. BROWN, Grand Secretary.

FROM THE EAST OF THE M. W. GRAND LODGE OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, A. F. AND A. M.

To the Masters, Wardens and Brethren of the Constituent Lodges, Greeting :

In the life-time of institutions, as of men, there comes supreme moments to put their value to the proof ; to test their moral fibre, and sift their claims to the world's regard. In such an hour not what we profess, but what we are and what we do must vindicate our fitness to exist.

Such an hour comes to Masonry now, through one of the most appalling calamities of all time: and now or never she must prove her birthright by her care for her stricken children. The tree is to be judged by its fruit. The emergency that is now upon us is to determine whether our suffering Brethren, whose wail of distress sighs in every breeze that sweeps over the ashes of Chicago, shall have cause, when they look back upon the winter of privations which followed that hideous nightmare of October, to nurse the bitter reflection that they leaned upon a broken reed, or whether they shall recur to it with grateful memories of Masonic charity walking with transfigured and pitying feet amid the embers of their ruined homes, sheltering their little ones beneath the wings of her compassion, and dropping relief from her open hands.

It is to determine, too, whether the vows of benevolence which we have assumed at the altar of Masonry have been of the lips only, or of the heart ; whether the influence of her holy teachings has stirred only that superficial level where the mere sentiment of brotherhood flares its brief moment, or has struck deeper and kindled into an enduring glow the love which manifests itself in deeds. If Masonry has indeed taken hold upon our hearts, in each one of them will be heard the echo of the still small voice which from within the Sanctum Sanctorum repeats the oft-uttered admonition, " Give to your distressed Brother as his necessities require and your abilities permit."

Brethren ! The necessities of our suffering fellows in Chicago are without limit. Until we have exhausted our ability to give, a sacred duty remains unfulfilled. Already many of you have done nobly ; your unasked charity, like that of others throughout the land, coming on swift wings to the rescue. While yet a whole city lay stunned and bewildered, echoing footsteps of the almoners of your bounty awakened hope in the bosoms of the down-stricken and despairing. Blessings on their unknown benefactors fell from the lips of famishing children, and eyes long unused to weeping were wet with thankful tears.

Careful, self-sacrificing men, still husband your contributions and prudently apply them to the relief of the most destitute. But the long winter is before them, and with it will come that steady drain upon their resources which only your best efforts can repair.

Let every craftsman, then, give to the utmost of his ability, and learn anew the lesson ; " It is more blessed to give than to receive." God help us all to do our duty. We suggest no definite plan, except that in some systematic way the needs and duty of the hour should be brought home to every Mason. How they shall be reached, and with the best results, we leave to the judgment of each particular Lodge. Whatever the diversity of plan in different localities, we confidently look for such a unity of purpose and such energy in its pursuit that the result of your efforts shall be commensurate with the awful necessity.

Let your contributions be forwarded to the Grand Master, at the Water Works, Chicago : they will be duly acknowledged and recorded.

LETTERS ACKNOWLEDGING RECEIPT OF SURPLUS RETURNED.

OFFICE OF THE GRAND MASTER OF MASONS OF THE STATE OF MAINE.

AUGUSTA, September 23d, 1872.

M. W. D. C. Cregier, Grand Master of Illinois:

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER:—Yours of August 24th, has just reached me. With this please find receipt for One Hundred and Twelve Dollars, sent from you to our Grand Lodge.

It is with devout gratitude to our Supreme Grand Master, that he moved the hearts of the Fraternity to contribute to the relief of our suffering Brethren in your city so that a surplus has been returned.

Please excuse haste, and accept this from a Brother who would be glad to greet you in Maine.

Fraternally Yours,

DAVID CARGILL,
Grand Master of Masons in Maine.

GRAND LODGE OF MASSACHUSETTS.

MASONIC TEMPLE, BOSTON, Sept. 21, 1872.

D. C. Cregier, Esq., Grand Master, etc.

DEAR SIR AND M. W. BROTHER:—Please find inclosed the receipt of our Grand Treasurer for the amount returned to us from the donations made from our Jurisdiction.

We rejoice that you find your necessities met by the liberality of your Brethren, and we accept the surplus returned, with a grateful appreciation of that nice sense of honor that causes its return to us, and shall sacredly devote it to the cause of Masonic charity.

Most Truly and Fraternally Yours,

CHARLES H. TITUS, Grand Secretary.

OFFICE OF THE GRAND MASTER OF MASONS, OF CONNECTICUT.

GREENWICH, CONN., Sept. 16, A. L. 5872.

M. W. Dewitt C. Cregier, Grand Master of Masons of Illinois:

MY DEAR SIR AND M. W. BROTHER:—Your favor of August 24th, 1872, came to hand this morning, enclosing draft on New York for $332 00, being the surplus of the funds contributed by the Brethren of Connecticut, over and above the amount necessary for the relief of our Brethren of Illinois, under their yet recent severe affliction.

I am wholly unable to express the emotions caused by the perusal of your truly fraternal letter. Surprise and delight were mingled; surprise at the receipt of the most unexpected enclosure, and delight that the grievous necessities of our Chicago Brethren had been abundantly relieved, and, above all, that our Illinois Brethren had displayed to the World, in these degenerate days, a bright example of the most delicate and refined sense of the highest Honor.

The Masons of Connecticut, from the overflow of their hearts, contributed most gladly of their substance, scarcely daring to hope that the necessities of their Brethren could be relieved, much less, that a portion of their charity would be returned.

It seems to me, M. W. Brother, that your suggestion of placing this return in the "Charity Fund" of our Grand Lodge, is the only proper disposition which could be made of it. Consecrated as the heart offering of the Masons of Connecticut, upon the blessed Altar of Charity, and returned to their sacred keeping, from the abundance of that Altar, it should remain at its Shrine, set apart for the benificent purposes of that which is the Bond of Peace, the Perfection of every virtue, extending beyond the grave, into the boundless realms of Eternity.

Accept our thanks for the judicious and most acceptable manner in which you and your associates of the Masonic Board of Relief have performed their arduous duties in this behalf.

The Grand Lodge of Connecticut will, at its next annual communication, make suitable acknowledgment of your noble conduct, and a proper disposition of the funds you have so unexpectedly placed in its hands.

With assurance of the highest respect and esteem, and with most earnest Fraternal greetings, I remain,

Very Truly and Fraternally Yours,

L. A. LOCKWOOD, Grand Master.

OFFICE OF THE GRAND MASTER OF MASONS IN THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

BUFFALO, Sept. 14, 1872.

Dewitt C. Cregier, Esq., Grand Master of Masons in the State of Illinois:

M. W. SIR AND DEAR BROTHER:—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter dated Aug. 24, ult., enclosing draft on New York for $3,404.17, being the amount awarded by the late Board of Masonic Relief of the city of Chicago, to the Grand Lodge of New York, from the surplus of funds contributed by the Fraternity to aid the Brethren of Chicago, who were rendered destitute by reason of the great conflagration which visited that city in October last, and which you desire should be appropriated to our "Hall and Asylum Fund," or applied to such other use as the Grand Lodge may direct.

In compliance with your wish, the money will be paid to the Treasurer of that fund, subject to further direction of the Grand Lodge, at its annual meeting, in June of next year.

The Masons of this Jurisdiction had no wish or expectation that any of the funds contributed by them should be returned, and they will recognize in this case an integrity on the part of the Masons of Chicago, which honors the teachings of the Craft.

I accept this noble contribution to the "Masonic Hall and Asylum Fund" of our Jurisdiction, which comes from the Masons of Chicago; and I desire, through you, M. W. Sir, to express the hearty thanks of the Grand Lodge of New York, for the liberal donation, and the sincere wish that Masons everywhere may be as just, liberal and generous as their Brethren of Chicago.

I am, M. W. Sir, truly and Fraternally, your Friend and Brother, CHRISTOPHER G. FOX, G. M.

OFFICE OF THE GRAND MASTER OF ANCIENT FREE AND ACCEPTED MASONS OF THE STATE OF NEW JERSEY.

NEWARK, September 16, 1872.

Hon. Dewitt C. Cregier, Grand Master of Masons in Illinois:

M. W. SIR AND BROTHER:—Your favor, enclosing draft on New York, bearing date 11th inst., for One Thousand and Eighty Dollars, the pro rata amount of surplus funds remaining on hand at the close of the labors of the Masonic Board of Relief of your Jurisdiction, is at hand.

I am glad to know the wants of our Brethren, made needy by the conflagration of October last, have been supplied; and be assured, my dear Brother, the zeal and fidelity with which the Masonic Board of Relief of Chicago has discharged its onerous duties, is most gratefully appreciated by the Craft of New Jersey.

I herewith return receipt, as requested, and have the honor to remain,
Faithfully and Fraternally Yours,

WM. E. PINE, Grand Master.

OFFICE OF THE R. W., THE GRAND MASTER OF FREE AND ACCEPTED MASONS OF PENNSYLVANIA.

MASONIC HALL, PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 23, 1872.

M. W. Dewitt C. Cregier, Grand Master of Masons of Illinois:

M. W. SIR AND BROTHER:—I take the earliest opportunity, after my return from the pleasing mission to which your courtesy requested my attention, in the examination of the proceedings of the Masonic Board of Relief for sufferers by the great fire at Chicago, to acknowledge your letter of Aug. 24, inclosing check to my order, of Two Thousand One Hundred and Fifty 40-100 Dollars, ($2,150 40,) proportion of surplus of Relief Fund returned to the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania. I feel sure, M. W. Sir and Brother, that the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, and her subordinate Lodges, had no thought, when they freely and most cheerfully contributed to the Relief Fund, of a return of any portion of their gifts. And while, in common with our Brethren in sister Jurisdictions, we are gratified to learn that the total amount contributed more than sufficed, under judicious management and disbursement, for the purposes intended; we unite with what must be the universal voice of the Fraternity, in bearing testimony to the nice sense of honor, and innate delicacy of feeling, which has prompted the return of the surplus. The action of the Board of Relief in this regard cannot fail to meet the entire approbation of the Craft.

It is an encouragement to the exercise of a free and spontaneous charity, thus to find what, indeed, from the noble precepts of our Fraternity, was only to be expected such scrupulous and exact regard for high principles.

The funds have been placed in the hands of the Grand Treasurer, and the matter will be reported to the Grand Lodge, at the next Grand Communication, that such action may be taken for their disposition as may be deemed most in accordance with the circumstances of their return.

With grateful recollections of the many courtesies extended by yourself and the Brethren of Chicago during my recent visit, I remain,

Very Truly and Fraternally Yours,
SAM'L C. PERKINS, Grand Master.

NEWTOWN, CONN., Sept. 24th, 1872.

D. C. Cregier, Esq., Grand Master of Masons in Illinois:

M. W. SIR AND BROTHER:—Your communication, under date of 24th of August, enclosing check upon the Metropolitan National Bank, New York, for One Hundred Dollars, being sum returned through you to the Masons of La., by the Masonic Board of Relief, of Chicago, has been forwarded to me, at this place, and I have, as requested, signed the receipt for the amount, and enclose the same herewith.

I am much pleased to find that the Brethren in Chicago, having sufficient for the wants of the needy in their midst, have so large a surplus, which can be bestowed upon Brethren elsewhere.

I propose, with the consent of the original donors of the sum sent from Louisiana, to place the amount returned by you, in the hands of Louisiana Relief Lodge, No. 1, New Orleans, which body has had, during the past year many calls upon it for relief of sojourning Brethren and their families.

Fraternally Yours, SAM'L M. TODD,
Grand Master of Masons in Louisiana.

THE GRAND LODGE OF IOWA, A. F. & A. M.

OFFICE OF THE GRAND MASTER,

MUSCATINE, Sept. 28, A. D. 1872.

Hon. D. C. Cregier, Grand Master:

DEAR SIR AND M. W. BROTHER:—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your esteemed favor of August 24th, covering your draft for the sum of $204 00, to the credit of the Grand Lodge of Iowa, as the estimated amount of the sum contributed by the Lodges of this Jurisdiction, for the relief of the distressed Brethren of your city, yet remaining unexpended, and above the wants of those for whose benefit it was advanced.

I am unable, my dear Brother, to express to you the surprise and pleasure which your letter, and the examination I have been permitted to make of the books of your "Masonic Board of Relief," has afforded me. In these I find evidences of the most thorough and scrupulous care in the management and distribution of the large sums which the Craft furnished you, and at the same time not less convincing evidence that no deserving case was allowed to go unrelieved.

The large sum which you have so unexpectedly returned to the contributing Bodies, is proof of the fact that the history of no other organization excels our own in that practical exemplification of charity which, while it prevents imposition, the giver supplies all the actual wants of the needy, and yet does not take from him either the capacity or the disposition to assist himself.

The work which the "Board of Relief" has accomplished, under your guidance, the singularly clear and methodical manner in which the detailed records of how the moneys received have been expended, the skill and wisdom which have attended the efforts of the Board, and, above all, the conspicuous unselfishness and integrity which have marked its entire action, constitute the brightest page in the history of our Order, and of that most wonderful of all events, the Chicago fire.

It has been often remarked that no evil, great or small, can occur without its compensating good. The history of the "Masonic Board of Relief," of Chicago, comprising, as it does, on the one hand, the spontaneous and fraternal outpouring of Masonic generosity, and on the other the careful, pains-taking and honorable distribution of this generosity by the Board, makes up no small portion of the compensating good that followed the great disaster. They showed to the world that in ministering to distress, Masons stopped not to count their gifts; and in the darkest hour the recipients allowed no feelings of personal loss to swerve them from the strictest path of Masonic honesty. History can show no brighter page anywhere.

With best wishes for yourself and Masons of Chicago, I am

Truly and Fraternally Yours,

O. P. WATERS, Grand Master in Iowa.

OFFICE OF GRAND MASTER, GRAND LODGE, A. F. & A. M.,
STATE OF MISSOURI.

ST. LOUIS, September 13th, 1872.

D. C. Cregier, Esq., Chicago, Ill., Grand Master of Masons:

DEAR SIR AND M. W. BROTHER:—Your letter, enclosing draft, etc., reached me to-day. I am certain that none of the contributors of our $1,150 to the "Chicago Relief Fund" ever expected a return of any of the money. Your act of generosity,—I can call it nothing else, it is more than justice,—will be a great surprise to our Grand Lodge. On its behalf I can only thank you, and other members of your Board of Relief. Such episodes as this increase confidence in each other, and make Masonic bonds stronger. They also teach a public lesson which does justice to the principles which we profess, and the motives by which we claim to be guided. Enclosed you will find receipt, as per request.

With admiration for the kind of material of which Chicago Masons are made, I am, Very Truly and Fraternally,

THOS. E. GARRETT, Grand Master of Missouri.

OFFICE OF THE GRAND MASTER OF THE GRAND LODGE OF NEBRASKA, A. F. & A. M.

NEBRASKA CITY, Sept. 15, 1872.

M. W. D. C. Cregier, Grand Master, Ill.:

MOST WORSHIPFUL SIR AND BROTHER:—Your communication, enclosing draft on New York for One Hundred and Fourteen Dollars, is received. I have placed the money in bank, subject to the disposal of our next Grand Lodge. Your action should, and I have no doubt will, receive the highest commendation from the various Grand Lodges. It certainly commends itself to all well disposed and well thinking men. May the applause of the Brethren throughout the world be your reward. I have the honor to be,

Truly and Fraternally Yours,

W. E. HILL, Grand Master of Nebraska.

GRAND LODGE OF CANADA.

OFFICE OF THE GRAND MASTER,

SIMCOE, ONT., Sept. 16, 1872.

MOST WORSHIPFUL SIR AND DEAR BROTHER:—I hasten to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, dated 24th of August, covering a draft on New York for $994 20, being the share, pro rata, of unexpended funds contributed by the Masons of Canada, in aid of the fund raised for the relief of those Masons who suffered from the great fire at Chicago, in October last, and I now enclose you the receipt of our Grand Treasurer for that amount

I most heartily approve of the decision of your Committee, in returning funds not required for the purposes for which they were contributed, and their action in this matter will hereafter be cited as a noble precedent for our guidance in all time to come.

This money is now placed to the credit of our Grand Lodge, and that amount, and every dollar in our treasury, is at all times available in response to the call of suffering humanity, and as an exemplification of our appreciation of the great cardinal virtues of Brotherly-love—Relief and Truth.

I continue, Most Worshipful Sir and Dear Brother,

Very Truly and Fraternally Yours,

WM. M. WILSON, Grand Master, G. L. C.

To the M. W. Bro. DEWITT C. CREGIER, Esq., Grand Master of Masons of Illinois, and late President of the Masonic Board of Relief, Chicago.

NEW YORK, October 19th, 1872.

M. W. SIR AND BROTHER:—In acknowledging the receipt of your very kind and fraternal favor, of the 9th ult., it becomes my pleasing duty to inform you that, at a regular communication of Independent Royal Arch Lodge, No. 2, F. A. M., held on the 3d inst., it was unanimously

Resolved, That this Lodge acknowledge, with sincere admiration, the noble generosity of the Board of Relief of Chicago, in the return of the unexpended balance of the funds committed to its charge. It is further

Resolved, That the warm thanks of this Lodge be, and they are hereby tendered the M. W. Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Illinois, for the kind terms in which he recognizes the contributions of the Masons of New York, which certainly was the mere discharge of an evident Masonic duty.

Very Truly and Fraternally Yours,

HENRY D. WALKER, Master.

Attest: GEO. PERAULT, Secretary.

To DEWITT C. CREGIER, Esq., Grand Master of Masons, Illinois, Chicago.

EXTRACTS.

[From Hon. Alex. H. Newcomb, Grand Master of Ohio.]

* * * It is very gratifying to know that you had enough to meet the wants of those who, by the great fire of October last, needed your assistance. * * *

[From Hon. Wm. A. Von Bokkeleo, Grand Master of Nevada.]

* * * We acknowledge the receipt of the draft, with great pleasure, as it is an evidence that the contributions of the craft were, as they should always be, in excess of, rather than less than the necessity of the occasion ; and that, as dispensers of our assistance, due attention has been paid that no waste be allowed. * * *

[From Hon. Edward A. Guibert, Grand High Priest of Iowa.]

* * * I congratulate you on the success of your Relief endeavor, and recommend your final disposition of the surplus. * * *

[From Seth E. Marsh, W. M. of St. John's Lodge, No. 4, of Hartford, Conn.]

* * * Be assured that the Officers and Brethren of St. John's Lodge, No. 4, will appreciate the motives, and principles of right and justice, which have actuated your Honorable Board, and consider them a thousand times more valuable than the amount returned. * * *

[From Geo. W. Tuller, W. M., of Hartford Lodge, No. 88, Conn.]

* * * Have no doubt but that the Lodge will feel that Masonry in Chicago is what it should be throughout the world. * * *

[From C. H. Rogers, Secretary of Plymouth Lodge, Mass.]

* * * Voted that the amount returned be accepted in the spirit which prompted its return, and that the thanks of the Lodge be tendered you for the same. * * *

[From Cornelius Glen, Secretary of Masters Lodge, No. 5, Albany, N. Y.]

* * * The members of our Lodge are perfectly satisfied with the manner in which the charge committed to you has been fulfilled, and it is a source of pleasure to know that after relieving all, there was more than sufficient, and hence a return made. * * *

[From J. B. White, W. M. of Holland Lodge, No. 8, New York.]

* * * Permit me to assure you of the pleasure with which we were enabled to afford any assistance to our needy Brethren on that occasion, and the gratification with which we learn of their returning prosperity, as evinced in your very honorable action in this matter. * * *

* * * We surely can have no better evidence than this fact, that the trust imposed upon that Board has been most faithfully and judiciously discharged ; and we trust that upon all future occasions, when the cry of distress shall come up from our Masonic Brethren, wherever they may be, the great tenets of our profession may be as faithfully carried out by those whose privilege it will be to contribute, as by those whose task it may be to distribute. Such display of the grand principles of Masonry cannot but result in good, and must compel the admiration of the world, and the admission that Masonry is more than an empty name. * * *

[From Edmund P. Fox, W. M., of Gloversville Lodge, No. 429, N. Y.]

* * * We do so only in the true fraternal spirit in which it is returned, and that in this action of your Board of Relief, we fully recognize an eminent exemplification of the principles of Masonic charity and benevolence.

[From Haynes L. Warren, W. M., of Rising Star Lodge, No. 450, Yonkers, N. Y.]

* * * It is extremely gratifying to learn that you have been furnished with funds sufficient to meet the extraordinary demands for relief occasioned by the unprecedented calamity to your city, and that a surplus still remains to be returned to the donors ; a state of affairs creditable alike to the liberality with which the fraternity responded to the appeal of their suffering Brethren in Chicago, and to the judgment and discrimination of your Board in distributing the funds. * * *

[From Wm. T. Lloyd, W. M., of Merchants Lodge, No. 709, New York.]

* * * Fully appreciating the motive which has prompted the return of the amount, beg you to accept the thanks of my Lodge for same, in the hope and belief that the suffering consequent upon the disaster referred to, has, under your auspices, been thoroughly alleviated. * * *

[From Jos. Eichbaum, Secretary of St. John's Lodge, No. 219, Pittsburg, Pa.]

* * * It is gratifying to know that the calls for aid for your distressed were liberally responded to, and if you got too much, we certainly cannot object to a return of the surplus, as the poor are always with us. * * *

[From F. T. Headley, Secretary of Bunker Hill Lodge, No. 151, Illinois.]

* * * Permit this Lodge to bear witness to the high degree of Masonic integrity exhibited by your committee in this transaction. * * *

[From E. C. Neall, Secretary of Chesterfield Lodge, No. 445, Illinois.]
* * * Reposing full trust and confidence in your committee, and believing that they have left no duties undischarged. * * *

[From R. Mendenhall, W. M., of Dallas City Lodge, No. 235, Illinois.]
* * * Duly appreciating your economical distribution of the fund. *

[From John D. Crabtree, W. M., of Friendship Lodge, No. 7, Dixon, Illinois.]
* * * On behalf of my Lodge, I tender you my sincere thanks and congratulations for the able and faithful discharge of the duties devolved upon you as President of the Board. * * *
